

You are invited to the opening of Strangely Familiar
works by Elise Hurst

Welcome to a strangely familiar vision of the 1920s - 1950s in which the world is peopled by animals. This is the first solo exhibition of paintings and etchings by Melbourne illustrator and artist Elise Hurst. The opening is proudly supported by the wonderful Crittenden Winery and No Vacancy Gallery.

Opening Night

6 - 9 pm on Thursday, 20 May 2010.
at No Vacancy Gallery

Located on level 3, QV
Situated on Jane Bell Lane.
(Enter via Russell St. near the corner of Little Lonsdale.)

Elise will be installing a pared-back version of her studio and painting throughout the exhibition.

Weekend Family Event
11 - 3 pm on Saturday, 22 May

We know that many children and families have enjoyed watching Elise creating works for this exhibition. So we have the pleasure of inviting you to come along to a special day at No Vacancy Gallery. Come and practise your drawing skills, see Elise at work, explore the paintings and maybe win some prizes. Elise's prints, books and cards will also be available.

For both of these events RSVPs would be greatly appreciated. Please go to www.elisehurst.com/exhibition/rsvp.html

The exhibition runs from 20 May to 5 June, 2010.
Gallery hours: Tuesday to Friday 11am - 6 pm,
Saturday 11 am – 5 pm, Sunday noon – 5 pm
(Open Thursday & Friday after hours by appointment)

No Vacancy Gallery is easily accessible by public transport and QV has car parking facilities.
